MEDICINAL.

VEGETINE
FOR DROPSY.
Central Falls, N. I., Oct. 19, 1877.
Dr. R. H. Stevens,
It is a pleasure to give my testimony for your valuable medicine. I was sick for a long time with Dropsy, under the doctor's care. He said it was Water between the Heart and Liver. I received no benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine; in fact, I was growing worse. I have tried many remedies; they did not help me. Vegetine is the medicine for Dropsy. I began to feel better after taking a few bottles. I have taken thirty bottles in all. I am perfectly well, never felt better. No one can feel more thankful than I do.
I am, dear sir, gratefully yours.
A. D. WHEELER.

VEGETINE
—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VEGETINE
FOR KIDNEY COMPLAINTS AND NEUROUS DEBILITY.
Islesboro, Me., Dec. 23, 1877.
H. R. Stevens, Esq.
Dear Sir—I had had a cough, for eighteen years, when I commenced taking the Vegetine. I was very low, my system was debilitated by disease. I had the Kidney Complaint, and was very nervous—cough bad, lung sore. When I had taken one bottle I found that it was helping me; it has helped my cough, and strengthened me. I am now able to do my work. Never have found anything like the Vegetine. I know it is every thing it is recommended to be.
Mrs. A. J. PENDLETON.

VEGETINE
is a nourishing and strengthening; purifies the blood; regulates the bowels; quiets the nervous system; acts directly upon the secretions; and arouses the whole system to action.

VEGETINE
FOR SICK HEADACHE
Evansville, Ind., Jan. 1, 1878.
Mr. H. R. Stevens,
Dear Sir—I have used your Vegetine for Sick Headache, and been greatly benefited thereby. I have every reason to believe it to be a good medicine.
Yours very respectfully,
Mrs. JAMES CONKOR, 411 Third street.

HEADACHE—There are various causes for headache, as derangement of the circulating system, of the digestive organs, of the nervous system, &c. Vegetine can be said to be a sure remedy for the many kinds of headache as it acts directly upon the various causes of this complaint. Nervousness, Indigestion, Costiveness, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Biliousness, &c. Try the Vegetine. You will never regret it.

VEGETINE
DOCTOR'S REPORT.
Dr. Chas. M. Duddenhausen, Apothecary, Evansville, Ind.
The doctor writes: I have a large number of good customers who take Vegetine. They all speak well of it. I know it is a good medicine for the complaints for which it is recommended. December 27, 1877.

VEGETINE
is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers; for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep.

VEGETINE
has never failed to effect a cure, giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

Those Dangerous Counterfeits.
The fact that Charles Williamson, the noted forger and escaped convict from Sing Sing, had been convicted of forgery in London, and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment has already been published. He was said to be a confederate of Dan Noble and other noted forgers. It was also stated that he had admitted that he was connected with the half million forgeries on the Bank of England, and offered to give other information in relation to forgeries for the sum of $75,000, which was refused. The information he offered for this large sum of money is now finding its way to the world at large, and the emigrant population of Europe in particular.

On Tuesday last the steamer Herder from Hamburg arrived at this port, having on board a large number of emigrants. The Polish and Austrian emigrants, while awaiting the sailing of the steamer at Hamburg, stopped with a man named Solomon Myers, or, as his sign read "Solomon Meyers & Co."

This man kept a place which was half tavern and half saloon. He compelled the emigrants to pay most exorbitantly for their accommodations, and before sailing told them they ought to have their German money exchanged for American currency. He promised them very advantageous rates. He found in the party $5,000 and said that for this he would procure them $9,000 of our money. Myers took them to a pretended banker, and this man, instead of exchanging the man's money on the spot, took what each had and gave him a receipt for the same. That same night, after dark, the "banker" went to Myers' place and paid each man according to his receipt in American bank notes, giving to each $50 and $100 bills on the National Broadway Bank of New York. The smaller notes given, so far as can be ascertained, were genuine. All of the counterfeit money bore the stamp of "L. Plaut, Berlin."

There is in Hamburg a Danish hotel, kept by a Mr. Simmons, a respectable gentleman. The Dances of the party went to Simmons' hotel, and he also recommended his guests to have their money changed, and sent them to a banker named Levy, who gave them the same money. A Mr. Percy Joseph of Mississippi changed his money at the banking house of Israel & Co., well known bankers, and he received two $50 notes on the same bank. Several other saloon passengers did the same, and these notes were invariably given them. The party were thus pretty well loaded with these bills, one man having no less than $6,000 worth. After a prosperous voyage they arrived here. And now commenced an experience not anticipated.

Mr. Joseph went to the Pennsylvania Railroad office, 526 Broadway, and having purchased a ticket to New Orleans, tendered a $50 note to the ticket agent, Mr. Wm. Hoffmann, who, not liking its appearance, handed it over to Mr. A. Hollander, the express agent, who in turn sent it to the bank, where it was pronounced a counterfeit. At the emigrant office of the Pennsylvania Railroad, 8 Battery place, several tickets were bought and paid for with this money, but Mr. Brown, the ticket agent, soon discovered the baseness of the paper, and found the parties from whom he obtained it before the train left, and made them take it back. In Castle Garden, Mr. Geo. O'Connor, who had charge
